Talking

Juan Adolfo Moguel Ortiz
President

Dear brothers and sisters:

Receive a new greeting to you and your family, and the first thing I manifest is my vows because in this year 2020 it will be a fruitful year in personal, professional and apostolic accomplishments, always asking for the blessing of our Father God and the protection of our Mother, the always Virgin Mary.

As we shared in a timely manner, in a statement sent to the Presidents of International Groups, in which we shared that the Executive Committee held a working meeting - last January - with the purpose of evaluating and scheduling upcoming activities for the good of the MCC . This exercise gave us the opportunity to consider the following: the different realities of the Movement, as well as the orientations received in the Dicastery of the Laity, in the Holy See, and the challenges that as a Church movement accept, recognize and work to collaborate with the Church, as God asks us.

The World Agency celebrates the 40th anniversary of its creation by praying and working. In our apostolic service, he remains always faithful to our charism, essence, purpose and method; giving concrete answers to the new reality. Let us ask our Father God for unity and the missionary path to which he has called us.

We continue with our visits to the International Groups, attending the invitations we receive to participate in Ultreyas and training events, as well as assistance at the request of the Holy See. This undoubtedly allows us to be in the countryside, in the real environment that is lived in these challenging times for humanity. Siempre cercanos, comunicados y unidos en oración y propósito solidario.

Saint Paul the Apostle, Pray for us.

Reflecting

Mons. Faustino Armendáriz Jiménez
Archbishop of Durango and OMCC Advisor

I share that Card. Peter K.A. Turkson, Prefect of the Dicastery for the Integral Human Development Service of the Holy See who with gratitude - as he tells us in his statement - received the "Report on the reality of workshops in África" as well as the "Vision and plan of action Africa 2020 ". Adding that together with the prayer he entrusts us with dialogue and collaboration with the Bishops of this continent, which requires evangelization and continuous efforts to bring Christ. We are grateful to God for this spiritual support and close understanding for OMCC projects that for 40 years has been at the service of the Church and the cursillista community of the world.

Precisely, to celebrate the 40 years of the OMCC as a worldwide coordinating body for Christianity courses, I invite you to join our spiritual celebration initiative, and we can do it by promoting in our countries, in your dioceses, together, in permanent prayer, We ask for each International Group and the OMCC. Prayer will strengthen us, as our Patron Saint Paul refers, the prayers of petition, of praise of blessing for what God has accomplished and continues to do in the history of mankind and for our Cursillo illuminated by the Holy Spirit.

We are always on the road. Always in preparation and repair of our life, and already close to Holy Week, I return to the words of Pope Francis: ... the meek will "inherit the earth": "They do not possess it or conquer it, they inherit it. This land is a promise and a gift to the People of God "and this" land, "he described," is Heaven, where we walk as disciples of Christ, promoting peace, fraternity, trust and hope. "

Lay people and priests, we are all participants in this great work of God and that the Holy Spirit gave us and that has been 70 years of ecclesial path, let us continue doing our best and positive actions for the good of the courses.

Receive my blessing and put into the hands of God and our Blessed Mother, the projects that have inspired us to be the faithful custodians to safeguard our beloved Movement.

Vatican City, February 23, 2020.- Message of Pope Francis for Lent 2020

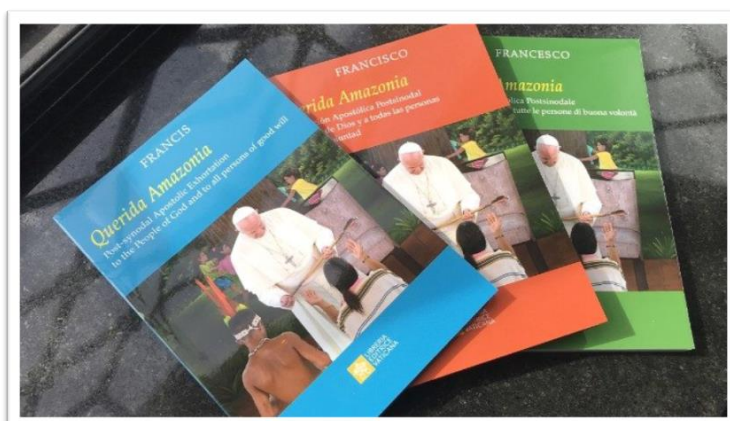

When the Law of God, the law of love, is abandoned, "in the name of Christ we ask you to reconcile with God" (Co 5:20)

Dear brothers and sisters:

The Lord again grants us this year an auspicious time to prepare us to celebrate with the renewed heart the great Mystery of the death and resurrection of Jesus, the foundation of the personal and community Christian life. We must continually return to this Mystery, with the mind and with the heart. In fact, this Mystery does not stop growing in us as we get involved in its spiritual dynamism and embrace it, responding freely and generously.

"Dear Amazonia" goes around the world

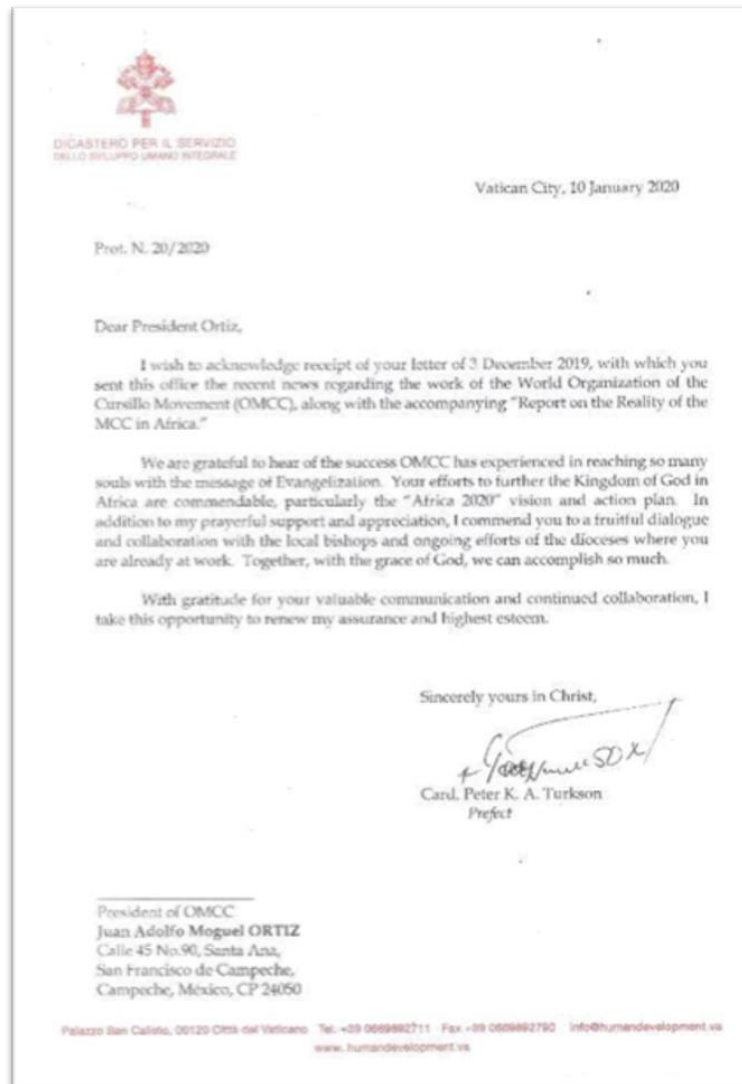

This Post-Synodal Apostolic Exhortation of the Holy Father Francisco, addressed to the people of God and to all people of good will, in which it is stated that: "... The Amazon is an interconnected plurinational totality, a great biome shared by nine countries: Brazil, Bolivia , Colombia, Ecuador, Guyana, Peru, Suriname, Venezuela and French Guiana. However, I address this Exhortation to everyone. On the one hand, I do it to help arouse affection and concern for this land that is also "ours" and invite them to admire it and recognize it as a sacred mystery; on the other hand, because the Church's attention to the problems of this place forces us to briefly resume some issues that we should not forget and that can inspire other regions of the earth to face their own challenges. National Lay Congress 2020 in Spain

Pope Francis in a message sent to the Eminent Cardinal Ricardo Blázquez Pérez, President of the Spanish Episcopal Conference, said that: "... This teaches us - as the motto of the Congress affirms - that we are People of God, invited to live the faith, not of individually or in isolation, but in the community, as a people loved and loved by God. We belong to him, and this implies not only having been incorporated into Him through baptism, but living in coherence with that gift received. For this, it is essential to be aware that we are part of a Christian community. We are not one more group, nor an NGO, but the family of God summoned around the same Lord. Remembering this leads us to deepen our faith every day: a gift that is lived in the liturgical action, in the common prayer of the whole Church and that must be announced. It is the people called by God, who walks feeling the impulse of the Spirit, who renews him and makes him return to Him, again and again, to feel his own thing. "

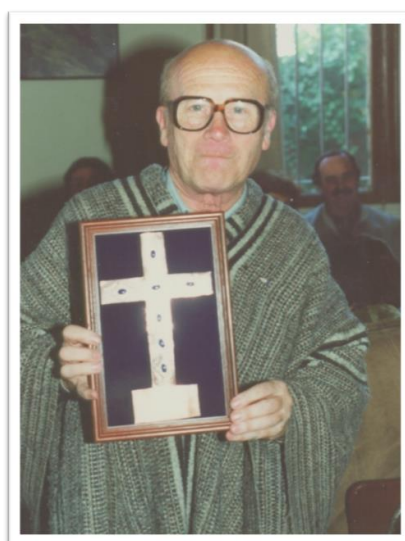

Mons. José Sáiz Meneses and a group of cursillistas participating in the National Lay Congress.

In the meeting held from February 14 to 16, 2020 held in Madrid, Card. Kevin Farrell, Prefect of the Dicastery for the Laity, Family and Life, who congratulated the Spanish Church for opening this process of formation and awareness to help all the baptized faithful to live their vocation and the mission is not a fad of the Pope Francisco, but it is simply an invitation to return to the purity of the origins of Christianity that is characterized by the presence of the lay faithful.

The Vatican Minister claimed full participation in the life and mission of the Church when it comes to evangelizing, governing and in the social sphere. The formation of the laity today is a priority for the whole Church emphasized the Card. Farrel

Eduardo Bonnín Aguiló

We have in our prayers and in the heart our exemplary friend and trainee Eduardo, one of the initiators of the Christianity courses celebrated on February 6, 12 years since Father God called him to live his fifth day.

Mons. José Sáiz Meneses, Ecclesiastical Advisor of the European Group of Cursillo de Cristiandad, gives us a new and excellent book on the Spirituality of our Movement. Thank you Monsignor, receive our congratulations for this new material for the good of the trainees of the world.

“Learn more, to better serve Christ”

OMCC continues with this service aimed at supporting the training and study of our leaders, through the online modality, supported by the Moodle Platform.

To date, the following courses have been taught in Spanish: Creative fidelity: the charism of the CCM in its ecclesial context; Fundamental Ideas and their origins; To learn is to change, in a world of change; Emotional intelligence, what does it have to do with a leader? Cursillistas from Panama, Argentina, Mexico, Uruguay, among others have participated.

We ask you to pray to continue giving this service that thanks to technology we are able to reach those who are interested in distance learning.

Let's pray all for all
