President

Dear Presidents of the International Groups, cursillistas of the world:

Receive a greeting and prayer for you, for your loved ones and cursillistas from your countries and dioceses:

Trusting in the mercy of God we continue caring for ourselves, united in prayer with the hope of passing through this storm that has led us to live in a different way, but with much hope and faith in the Lord.

As I mentioned earlier, we responded to the provisions that the Dicastery for the Laity, the Family and Life and we sent the document requested by the Vatican regarding the "Norms and procedures for the Cursillo Movement of Christianity, on the prevention and protection of sexual abuse of minors and vulnerable people in internal life and in the activities of the apostolate of said Ecclesial Movement ". Later I will share the final content, once it is approved by the Holy See.

On the other hand, and in relation to the preparations to celebrate the VIII World Meeting, to be held in the second half of 2021, as possible, I share with you that, in the Executive Committee, we have reflected and prayed enough, and we continue to do so for this Meeting; especially since it coincides with an unprecedented stage of health in the world. International Groups were consulted and we look forward to receiving their response; we are sure that we are all in the same boat, as Pope Francis said, and we are all aware that the world has already changed.

We must prepare ourselves for the post-COVID-19 era that will bring challenges and opportunities for Evangelization and for the MCC, so it will be necessary to find the appropriate ways for our apostolate in the face of the new reality.

We continue in unity and communication with all of you through phone calls, video calls, emails; as well as through reflections such as the one sent about "Let's make a network of encounter and dialogue in times of COVID-19" document that invites reflection on the use of technology without losing the essential of the MCC "content that goes along the lines of thought of Pope Francis who has told us that: "Networking means creating meeting places and dialogue within the institutions themselves."

See you soon.

Saint Paul the Apostle, Pray for us.

Reflecting

Mons. Faustino Armendáriz Jiménez
Archbishop of Durango and OMCC Advisor

Dear Presidents of the International Groups and cursillistas of the world:

"Remember all the way that the Lord, your God, has made you travel" is the reflection that Pope Francis invites us to review the path that has led us to that encounter with the Lord, He who has transformed our life to turn it into a wonderful experience full of wonders.

His Holiness tells us that it is essential to remember the good received: if we do not remember it, we become strangers to ourselves, "passers-by" of existence. Without memory we uproot ourselves from the terrain that supports us and we let ourselves be carried like leaves by the wind.

I continue to call you to a permanent Day of Prayer, for now, through technology, asking our Lord for the necessary lights for the OMCC projects and the VIII World Meeting to be held in 2021, if God allows it.

Let us take advantage of the digital modality to be close and communicated, while this storm passes we continue to ask our Father God for our needs and offer him the testimony that convinces, a daily testimony of being his children who love him.

Receive my blessing and let us put in the hands of the Father and our Blessed Mother, our life and apostolic work, to be faithful custodians and safeguard our beloved Movement.

Cheer up ! Praying and working for the Glory of God, especially now that we need it.

De colores;

Saint Paul the Apostle

Pope Francis

Pope Francis announced that he adds three new invocations to the Lauretan Litanies that are traditionally dedicated to the Virgin at the end of the recitation of the Rosary: "Mater Misericordiae", "Mater Spei" and "Solacium migrantium" (in Latin) that is: "Mother of Mercy", "Mother of Hope" and "Consolation" but also "Help" of the migrants. This was announced by the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments in a letter addressed to the presidents of the Episcopal Conferences.

The place where these invocations will be placed is: "The first invocation will be placed after Mater Ecclesiae, the second after Mater divinae gratiae, the third after Refugium peccatorum."

Bishop José Ángel Saiz Meneses
Bishop of Terrassa and Ecclesiastical Advisor of the National Secretariat of Spain and the European Group of Cursillos in Christianity GEC

On Saturday June 6, the National Plenary of the Cursillo de Cristiandad Movement (MCC) took place, which this time was carried out electronically. Mgr. Saiz Meneses, National Councilor, has presided over the Mass from the Chapel of the Bishopric of Terrassa, which has been broadcast throughout Spain. The President, the Counselor and other representatives of the Terrassa Diocesan Secretariat attended.

In his homily Bishop Saiz Meneses has reflected on the current moment in society and the response that must be given by the MCC in light of the difficulties of the early Christians and the persecutions that are recounted in the book of the Acts of the Apostles , and always bearing in mind the missionary mandate of the Lord.

The present moment, full of uncertainties, must help purify the hearts of each trainee and their motivations to trust even more in the Lord and be more creative. The mission of the MCC is placed squarely on the first announcement and must help to announce the Good News to all environments in order to renew humanity through the renewal of people.

Personal witness is essential in this process, as is friendship, which is the form of human relationship that becomes an expression of the communion of life and faith. Finally, he had a memory for the initiators of the MCC, for Bishop Juan Hervás, who died on June 6, 1982, as well as for Bishop Sebastián Gayá and Eduardo Bonnín.

Three Regional Meetings that will move Latin America.

The thoughts of the GLCC expressed by its president, Víctor Salgado Vásquez: These virtual meetings will not be the first, nor will they be the last, therefore, they are calm because they are simply the beginning. We have an urgency to see each other, to hear from you, for the same reason we want to empower these meetings that bring us closer and give movement to everything we do for and for Christ within our apostolate at the MCC and our beloved Church. Therefore, do not worry about anything, rather we begin to make a virtual pilgrimage, united to Christ, united among us, it is to feel that our hearts are burning on our way to Emmaus, a beautiful pilgrim journey of the Lord.

Close in the distance, connected by technology to communicate Christ.

OMCC Official Site

We invite you to be part of our virtual community.

That all the International Groups, National Secretariats and Dioceses of the world participate, that they open the digital windows to be connected in this networked world.

How to be part of this community?

1. Personal registration on the page.
2. Dissemination among cursillistas from their dioceses, countries and International Groups.
3. Send information to the OMCC President to learn about their events and workshop activities. <https://www.cursillosdecristiandad.net/?lang=es>

"Learn more, to better serve Christ"

OMCC continues with this service aimed at supporting the training and study of our leaders, through the online mode, supported by the Moodle Platform.

Thanks to technology we are able to reach those who are interested in distance learning.

Cursillista prayer before this unexpected storm COVID-19

Our Father who are in heaven, I thank you for having been chosen and called to your service in the Cursillos (of) in Christianity Movement and for the help you offer me in this mission, in which despite my limitations you trust in my humble service.

You, who are the God of tenderness and always celebrate a party when a child returns home, help me in this unexpected storm that has me fearful, scared, helpless and at the mercy of confusion and helplessness. I tell you from my heart: here I am Lord to do your will.

I feel weak and fragile without you, but you who are the God of closeness and proximity listen to my plea to (row) grow with you through prayer. With this confidence, I know that you will save me because You are the Captain of this ship, of my ship called life, but my little faith can make me fall into confusion and fear. Have mercy on me.

You call those of us who are thirsty to drink. Help me to know how to communicate to the world your love, with which You love us with so much tenderness and so much mercy. Renew in me my first love for you and my commitment to the Church and the Cursillos in Christianity Movement. Help me to bear witness to the Christian life and that Your voice be heard to offer hope in the face of this storm.

Holy Spirit and our Mother Mary: encourage me to a new impulse and renewed enthusiasm to evangelize in environments and people, especially those who are far away. I ask you for Pope Francis, for (the) priests, for those who have passed away, for those who suffer from hunger, loneliness, sadness, physical and emotional illness, for the leaders of each nation, for the authorities, for the unemployed, for the doctors and hospital staff, who as true servants, are the army of science that is working to save lives.

As Pope Francis said: "Now, while we are in rough seas," Wake up, Lord we beg you "and you answer us Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith? Lord, you are addressing us with a call, a call to faith ... »(Jl 2,12). As a disciple I remain in You Lord, give me courage and hope. Listen to my prayer.

Amen.

Pray an Our Father and Hail Mary.
